

The Fastest Way for Professional Installation

- Professional high-end security system set up in a matter of minutes!
- Feature-rich Grade 2 3G wireless security system includes smartphone app, PIR detectors and optional video verification.
- Cloud-based smartphone app enables remote monitoring and smart home management anytime, anywhere.
- Unlimited expansion options with variety of reliable security sensors (indoor and outdoor) IP cameras and smart home devices.
- Unparalleled easy-to-use configuration with online wizard and remote service for minimum costs.

WiComm. Our Technology.

RISCO Group's Smart Security Solution Delivers New Opportunities

With RISCO Group's WiComm Security System, you can now cut out the installation costs and expand your customer base by directly offering customers an irresistible combination of professional high-end security solutions with intuitive self-installation and a user-friendly set-up wizard.

You enjoy new revenue opportunities, while your customers enjoy the best value proposal at a lower total cost of ownership.

Minimise Expenditure, Maximise Recurring Revenues

An integrated, interactive services platform and online set-up wizard deliver superior convenience and cost-effectiveness. Which means you can now win customers over the competition with low costs and top service, while increasing recurring and overall revenues.

Professional Standard Security Solutions

Integrated Interactive Service Platform

Advanced Automated Customer Management Tools

Online Direct Selling Platform

Offering your Customers the Best Value Proposal in the Market

Our cost-efficient system allows your customers to choose between self-installation or a professional installer, while enjoying the benefits of a convenient and accessible ordering platform that offers several upgrade options.

A user-friendly smartphone app is included for full control of security and home safety accessories, along with a variety of expansion options that can transform the customer's security system into a scalable smart home system.

Self Installation at Professional Level, Low-Cost "Pre-Configured" Kit

Monitoring - Self or 3rd party Professional Monitoring

One App For Security, Video and Connected Home

Endless On Demand Expansions For any Security, Safety & Smart Home Needs

Your Service

Professional Grade 2-Way Wireless Security System

- Quick-Installation at professional level.
- User-friendly homeowner set-up wizard.
- Pre-configured detectors in one kit.
- Sleek panel design to fit any location.
- IP/GSM, 2G/3G choice of communication.

Wide Range of Wireless Accessories

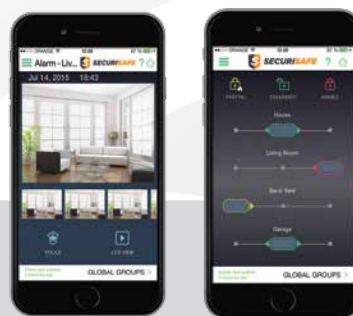

- The 32 zone fully wireless system allows the addition of security, safety and home control devices.
- All products can be sold and added separately.
- A smartphone app with visual verification allows users to conveniently access their system for full control.

One Cloud. One App. Integrated Control.

Security, video and smart home – all with a single app! Pair up with PIR camera detectors to enable visual verification for remote self-monitoring.

From the app via the cloud, home owners can control the panel (arm, disarm, bypass, notifications), control the video (view, record), control smart home devices and set scenarios, as well as automatically configure the system (DIY mode).

Advanced Dealer/CMS Tools

The benefits of installation management (panels, users, CMS), remote diagnostic (configuration software), set up IP cameras, set up smart home, automatic configuration, branding (smartphone app), profiles management, security on demand.

Take your security business to the next level

End to end solution to acquire new market segments

Bottom line and top line increase

Professional level solution with integrated Interactive Services

Partnership with the worldwide renowned intrusion solution vendor, leading in cloud-based, value-added services for end users

About RISCO

Over the past four decades, RISCO Group has evolved to become a proven leader in the global security solutions market serving millions of satisfied customers worldwide. We design, develop, manufacture and market end-to-end solutions for the professional security market, with regional offices around the globe.

We are technological leaders, seeking innovation in all of our products. Our cloud-based and SaaS solutions enable efficient and economical installations. Our Smartphone application offers users remote access to their security systems, video monitoring and connected home from one interface.

Our aim is to consistently provide our customers with the cutting-edge technology, personalized service and customer support as expected with the RISCO brand.

For more information on RISCO Group, visit www.riscogroup.com/uk
0161 655 5500 | sales@riscogroup.co.uk

GLITWICOMM
WICOMM BROCHURE

